

OCTOBER

Keith's Quill

Happy Birthday! I write that most every day to someone on Facebook. It is fun to wish people a great day and it is a good way to connect. No one dislikes someone telling him or her "happy birthday" even if they are not excited about getting older.

Many of you, this past week, wished me a "happy birthday" and I wanted to first thing in this article, tell you thank you! For all of you that sent me cards and baked me cookies and cupcakes and sent candy to me, God Bless You. I probably don't need the sweets, but oh they were so good. What was even better was all the well wishes and thoughtfulness.

This church is a special place because we care about each other. I know that I am not the only one that feels like this group loves them. I see how you respond to each other and know we care. This is exactly how it is supposed to be. If somehow we have failed in your estimation to care about you, and you feel that as you might be reading this piece, may I say that I am extremely sorry. We will try to be better because one goal of every church should be to make every person feel like they are important and special because in God's sight they truly are.

So maybe this needs to be turned into a challenge. Lets make sure that everyone who comes into our church is greeted with a smile and has the opportunity to have someone listen to their heart and respond with theirs. We have heard a good measure of our own behavior might be "what would Jesus do?" When we ask that question concerning how we treat each other the answer is very clear. We would care for each other at whatever personal cost there might be. Can we make that one of our church goals for the year? Everyone caring about every one else. I know that I feel your love and I do really desire that everyone who is a part of our church will join me in that wonderful, life affirming experience.

Allow me to give a special Thank You to all those who invited someone to church for the Back to Church Sunday. Keep up the good work. Inviting people to the Lord is not a once a year event, put rather a life event. May our lives be a sweet witness and our lips give testimony of our faith in Jesus.

"For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods." Psalm 135:5

Operation Christmas Child

This month, in the foyer of our church, there will be a basket available for you to put in items that can be used in the upcoming OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD shoeboxes. Yes, can you believe it is that time of the year again! Collection Week is Monday, November 16th thru Monday, November 23rd from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Donna Hofmann always does an amazing job as our OCC Coordinator for the Moab area. She is planning a Shoebox Packing Party on Wednesday, November 18th. This is such a great way to support this wonderful ministry in presenting the Gospel to a child somewhere around our world. Shoeboxes will be available starting on Sunday, October 11th thru Collection Week ending on November 23rd.

October is here with Young Life and we are so excited about what God is doing and is going to do in the next few months.

October at a glance:

- Wyldlife (7th & 8th Grade) meets every Tuesday @ 7:00 p.m. @ Center Street Gym
- YoungLife (9th–12th grade) meets every Wednesday for Club @ 7:07 p.m. @ The MARC, except for Wednesday, October 14th because we are taking YoungLife to California for the UEA weekend, October 14th thru 18th.
- Campaigners for Young Lifers (Bible Study) Sundays, @ 7:00 p.m. @ First Baptist Church
- Guys Breakfast Bible Study: Friday's @ 6:45 a.m. @ the Rappe's home.
- Girls Bible Study: Wednesdays @ 5:30 p.m. @ Kate & Eric Smith's home.

Please continue to pray that God would move in the hearts of our youth, for the transition of hiring a new Administrator (contact Silas) and that God would provide in abundance for taking High School students on our UEA trip so that they may hear the gospel. There are quite a few high school youth that want to go, but don't have the funds to pay for this trip. If you can help, please contact Silas (260-0285) or Sarah (260-0249) We are so thankful for the new leaders that are joining us!!

GOD IS GOOD!!
